

National Republican.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 26, 1879.

OUR COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

FIFTH SCHOOL EXAMINATION.
Second District Male Grammar School, Dr. Charles Ross, principal.—This school underwent its annual examination on Tuesday, 26th instant, in the presence of a good number of local citizens, and the results were as follows: Woodward, and Chapman; E. M. McKeown, principal of the Franklin school building; J. E. Thompson, eng. principal of the Franklin school; Dr. Wm. H. Bell, professor of German in the third ward district, and many others. The school-room was tastefully ornamented with pictures, and the schoolroom was filled with the fragrance of German music.

The pupils were examined in arithmetic, history, grammar, "physical geography, natural philosophy, and reading, and each of the above named received a gold medal.

The examination in German was conducted by Prof. R. H. Dryer, teacher of that language in this district, and showed marked progress in all respects. Several pupils were sent up by the school under the direction of Prof. Daniels, the efficient music teacher of this district.

Songs and recitations were also given, which received a well-deserved applause.

At the close of the exercise the premiums were awarded as follows:

First Prize—John C. Cheesey.

Second Prize—J. H. Smith, Eliza Wright and J. B. Ward.

Exemplary Conduct and Punctuality—Lodowick John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Powell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment and general improvement.

To Miss Letitia Falconer and Miss Hallie Clark, were awarded the medals for punctuality.

Mr. Lovett, John Denton, Wm. McEvoy, The Johnston, Le Roy Tinsley and Frank Woodward.

Attention to Study and Improvement—Wm. King, Filmore Harrison and Robert Jackson.

Improvement in Penmanship—Max Geor-

geous—Chas. Davis.

Improvement in Vocal Music—James Pow-

ell.

Honorable Mention—Eddie Benten, Tomo-

to, John Watson, Chas. Gile and Jas. Lachey.

The gold medal for German was given to J. H. Smith by Prof. Dryer, who accompanied him with the examination.

The examination pro of very satisfactory to all present, as was made manifest by the whole course of exercises, which lasted five hours.

The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, and by their evident proficiency in the different subjects, won the credit upon the roll.

The examinations were to be repeated this evening, to-morrow and Saturday evenings.

Testimonials were awarded to Miss Georgeous, Dr. Charles Ross, Mr. Denton, Mr. Woodward, and Mr. Chapman, for diligent application and general improvement.

Miss Mary E. Brooks, for improvement in English branches and music for punctuality.

Mary Gaetlin, for good deportment